

By-laws for the Government of Greeley, Dwight Palser Branch 324, National Association of Letter Carriers of the United States of America

PREAMBLE

For the purpose of effecting uniformity in the administration of its privileges, honors, and benefits, the National Association of Letter Carriers in convention, ordains the following Constitution for the government of Branches under its jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 1

NAME AND OBJECT

Section 1. This Branch shall be known as Dwight Palser Branch 324 – Greeley, Colorado of the National Association of Letter Carriers of the United States of America.

Section 2. The objects of this Branch are to unite all employees who are eligible for membership under Article 2, Section 2 of the National Constitution into one harmonious body for their mutual benefit, and to assist the National Association of Letter Carriers in its efforts to improve the condition of its entire membership.

ARTICLE 2

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Application for membership must be made in writing, signed by the applicant, stating age, social security number, place of residence, and such other information as may be determined by the Branch. A Form 1187(Dues Check-off) must be signed by all applicants seeking membership in the Branch and the NALC.

Section 2. Any regular branch member on tendering a written resignation of membership and paying all fines, assessments, and dues shall receive from the Secretary a certificate thereto. Such certificate shall be proof of good standing at the time of resignation.

Section 3. Any regular branch member in good standing in his/her Branch, moving his/her employment to another city, or retiree in good standing in his/her Branch moving to another city, may transfer membership to the Branch located in such city. He/She shall make application to the Secretary of his/her Branch, who shall ascertain from the Treasurer if all dues and assessments charged against him/her on that date are fully paid; if so, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to announce at the next regular meeting of the Branch that the application has been received and all obligations discharged. There being no objections, the Secretary will at once forward to the Secretary of the Branch with which affiliation is desired, a letter of recommendation. The letter shall be read at the first regular meeting of the receiving Branch held after its receipt and the transferred individual shall be considered a member at that time. The Secretary of the Branch shall then notify the Secretary of the original Branch that the transferee has been received into membership.

MEETINGS

Section 1. The regular meetings of the Branch shall be held not less than once a month, at such time and place as may be designated in the Branch by-laws. Each branch, with prior approval of its membership, shall have the option of only meeting ten (10) times per year.

- a. The regular meeting of this Branch shall be the first Thursday of every month at 6:30 p.m.

Section 2. Special meetings shall be called by the President upon the written request of three (3) members in good standing or by vote of the Branch and notification of such meetings, stating the object of the call shall be given the members by the Secretary as directed by the Branch or as required by the By-laws.

Section 3. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting other than that for which it may have been called.

Section 4. The Branch shall be called to order at the time prescribed in the By-laws if a quorum be present.

- a. Seven (7) members shall constitute a quorum.

Section 5. In the absence of the President and Vice-President, any member in good standing may be elected to preside by a majority of those present.

ARTICLE 4

OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of the Branch shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Sergeant-at-Arms, a Health Benefits Representative, and a Board of Trustees composed of three (3) members.

Section 2. All officers shall be elected for a term of two (2) years or until their successors are duly elected and installed. With the exception of the office of the President, the President shall appoint the successor of all other officers in the event of death, resignation, disqualification, refusal, or neglect of such officers to discharge the duties of their office.

Section 3. The offices of Recording Secretary and certain duties of the Financial Secretary have been consolidated into the office of Secretary. The office of Treasurer and certain duties of Financial Secretary have been consolidated into the office of Treasurer.

Section 4. Any active or retired letter carrier in good standing in the Branch shall be eligible to any office therein or for election as a delegate to the State and/or National conventions, except as provided in the Constitution of the NALC. All candidates for office or delegates must be present at the meeting when nominated or signify in writing their willingness to serve if elected.

Section 5. Shop Stewards shall be elected within their respective stations with their duty to be to guard the interests of the Branch in their particular station under the direction of the Branch or its officers.

ARTICLE 5

ELECTIONS

Section 1. The provisions of this Article shall govern the election for all Branch officers or other elected Branch positions.

Section 2. All regular members shall be eligible to hold any office or position in the Branch, except that a member who voluntarily or otherwise, holds accepts, or applies for a supervisory position in the Postal Career Service for any period of time, whether one (1) day or a fraction thereof, either detailed, acting, probationary or permanently, shall immediately vacate any office held, and shall be ineligible to run for any office or other position for a period of two (2) years after termination of such supervisory status. Upon nomination, the candidate must verify that he or she has not served in a supervisory capacity for the 24 months prior to the nomination.

Section 3. All regular members shall be entitled to one vote for each office or position to be filled. However, Shop Stewards shall be elected only by the regular members within the station or area that they represent.

Section 4. Election of officers shall take place at a time prescribed by the Branch by-laws. No less than 45 days before each election, the Secretary shall mail to every member a notice of the election, stating the offices for which election shall be had and the time, place, manner for nomination an election. For purposes of this provision, the requirement that notices be mailed may be satisfied by timely publication of the notice in "The Postal Record", or in State or Branch publications that are mailed to the last known address of the member.

Section 5(a). Every regular member shall have the right to nominate a candidate for any office or position to be filled.

(b). Each candidate shall be nominated at a regular or special meeting of the Branch not less than four (4) weeks before the date of the election, but not less than ten (10) days after the notice of nomination and election has been sent out.

Elections shall be by secret ballot. When there are two or more candidates for any office, the election shall be by the ballot and the plurality of all votes cast for such office shall be necessary to elect. There shall be no write in votes for candidates not officially on the ballot. Any such write in shall not be counted but will not invalidate the rest of the ballot. Each regular member shall be entitled to one vote for each position to be filled. When there is but one candidate for any office, the President may declare that such person has been elected. Adequate safeguards to insure a fair election shall be provided, including the right of any candidate to have an observer at the counting of the votes and at any polling place. The election will be held at the December meeting with nominations to be opened at the regular October meeting and closed at the regular November meeting. All members may cast their vote at the regular December meeting or request a mail-in ballot to be returned to the Branch no less than one (1) day prior to the regular December meeting. Ballots for the Shop Steward will be cast at each station not more than seven (7) days prior, nor less than one (1) day prior to the regular December meeting. The Secretary shall preserve for one (1) year the ballots and all other records pertaining to the election.

Section 6. Installation of Branch officers shall take place at the first or second meeting of the Branch following their election and shall be by such ceremony as the National Association may provide. Any National officer, a Past President of the National Association, a President or Past President of a State Association, shall act as Installing Officer, provided that in their absence any officer of a State Association or the Past President of a Branch may act as such.

Section 7. The nominations of delegates and alternates to the State Convention shall be made at the October and November meeting each year. The nominations of delegates and alternates to the National Convention shall be made at the October and November meeting in the years prior to when a National Convention is held. The office of President shall entitle this position as a delegate to the State and National Conventions. The election of delegates and alternates for the State Convention shall be held at the December meeting each year. The election of delegates and alternates for the National Convention shall be held at the December meeting in the year prior to when a National Convention is held. Additional delegates shall be elected from the floor. After delegates have been elected, alternates shall be selected from the remaining candidates in proportion to the vote received. Should there not be a sufficiency of defeated candidates to fill the requisite for alternates, the remainder shall be selected by an election at the same meeting. It is also required that all candidates elected as delegates to the State and National conventions or any other elected representative convention attend 10 of the 12 regular meetings during the year immediately preceding the convention if they are to receive any remuneration from the Branch for expenses incurred in attending these meetings. Any member unable to attend a meeting due to union work, full day of annual leave or sick leave shall provide documentation to the branch and request the absence be marked excused. It will be up to the member to provide the documentation and request the absence be changed to excused if approved by the membership at the next monthly meeting.

- (a.) Nominations and elections of the Health Benefits Representative will be held at the same time as the officers for the Branch. The President will be the delegate-at-large to the Health Benefits Seminar.
- (b.) Compensation for Delegates to the State and National Convention.
  - A. Compensation will include travel, lodging and per diem to cover meals and incidental expenses. LWOP will not be paid by the branch to attend a convention, unless suspended by a 2/3 vote of those in attendance.
  - B. The Executive Board will determine the means of travel. Anyone making other travel arrangements will be compensated for their expenses up to the cost of the determined means of travel.
  - C. All delegates will have their registration fee paid for by the branch.

Section 8. In the event of a tie for the position, each candidate will be offered five (5) minutes to address the members and a secret ballot will be held immediately. Shall either of the candidates not be in attendance at the December meeting, the President may call a special meeting or hold the run-off at the January meeting. No mail-in ballots shall be cast for the run-off election.

ARTICLE 9

COMMITTEES

Section 1. The President of the Branch shall appoint all committees.

ARTICLE 10

CHARGES

Section 1. Any member of the Branch who shall violate the Constitution or By-Laws of the Association or Branch may have charges preferred against him/her, and if such charges are proved shall be fined, reprimanded, suspended, or expelled as the laws may direct or the Branch determine. Any officer of the Branch who shall fail or neglect to discharge the duties of his/her office, or who may be guilty of gross misconduct, may be removed from office. These determinations shall be made by the members present and voting at the next regular Branch meeting after which said charges were read to the Branch. The vote regarding any of the above matters may be continued once, by motion, to the following regular Branch meeting.

Section 2. Charges must be made in writing, specifying the offense, failure, neglect, or misconduct so as to fully apprise the member or officer of the nature thereof, and shall be signed by a member of the branch; and a copy of said charges, under seal of the Branch, shall be served upon him/her. Said charges shall be read by the recording secretary at the first regular Branch meeting after the service on the member or officer.

Section 3. The President, or if the President be the person against whom charges are made, the Vice-President, shall then appoint a committee of three disinterested members, who shall forthwith summon the parties, hear and take down or cause to be taken down and recorded, the testimony and /or documentary evidence presented. It shall be the duty of the committee to find the true facts and report to the Branch. The parties are entitled to be heard by the committee, to present evidence, and to cross-examine all witnesses who make statements to the committee, but rules of evidence and rules of judicial procedure need not be observed. The committee, after completing its fact-finding duty, will present to the Branch a written report of the facts elicited, and immediately thereafter disband and be eligible to vote. The Branch shall then decide, by simple majority vote, the issue of whether the facts, as found by the committee, sustain the charge. The charged party is entitled to defend himself/ herself before the Branch immediately before the vote is taken. If the Branch decides that the facts sustain the charge, the Branch shall entertain a motion to fix the penalty, if any be required.

Section 4. Questions of expulsion or removal from office shall be decided by ballot and require a two-thirds vote. If less than two-thirds of the ballots are for expulsion or removal from office, the Branch shall proceed to determine whether the punishment shall be suspension, fine or reprimand. A fine and the amount thereof must be approved by a two-thirds secret ballot vote. If suspension be determined upon, the Branch shall fix the term of suspension. If reprimand be determined upon, the President or the Vice-President, if the President be the person against whom the charges were made, shall reprimand the accused in open meeting.

Section 5. During the suspension for an offense, a member is not exempt from dues, and he/she shall be subject to all penalties of Article 7, Section 4, for the non-payment of the same.

Section 6. Any member or officer suspended for any offense shall be reinstated on the removal of the payment of all demands against him/her, or at the expiration of the term for which he/she was suspended, without action of the Branch, and the President or Vice-President, as the case may be, shall declare in open meeting his/her reinstatement. This provision does not apply where the member is suspended pursuant to charges brought by the National Association or by any officer or representative by authority of the President or Executive Council of the National Association.

Section 7. An expelled member can be reinstated only after the manner of a new applicant.

Section 8. Any National, State, or Branch office or member of a Branch who, having first been charged under this Article with using or attempting to use the Branch, or any portion of it, or his/her influence therein, for political purposes, is determined by the Branch in accordance with the procedures prescribed in this Article to be guilty of the charge, shall be guilty of perfidy and shall suffer expulsion.

APPEALS

Section 1. An appeal may be taken to the President from the decision of any other officers of the Branch, and to the Branch from any decisions of the President, which appeal must be taken at the meeting at which the subject appealed from is under consideration, and before any other business is taken up for action; and any member considering that an injustice has been done him/her by a decision of the Branch, may appeal in writing to the Committee on Appeals of the National Association.

Section 2. When an appeal from the action of the Branch is taken, the following rules must be observed;

First: The appeal must be in writing and filed with the recording secretary of the Branch, together with any written testimony, arguments and briefs, within twenty (20) days from the date of the Branch meeting at which the decision to be appealed from was made.

Second: The recording secretary shall submit and read to the Branch at its next regular meeting following the receipt of the appeal, the notice of intention to appeal, the appeal and full written testimony, argument, briefs, and evidence submitted by the appellant.

Third: The Branch shall then be allowed twenty (20) days to prepare its reply which shall be in writing with the seal of the Branch attached thereto. A copy of this reply shall be immediately transmitted by the recording secretary shall also immediately transmit the appeal, together with all the testimony, arguments, briefs, and evidence submitted by the appellant and the reply of the Branch thereto via registered mail, to the Chairman of the Committee on Appeals of the National Association. Either party to an appeal from a decision of the Branch to the Committee on Appeals of the National Association may, if dissatisfied with the decision, appeal to the National Convention of the National Association of Letter Carriers, in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 11, Section 4 of the National Constitution.

ARTICLE 12

FUNDS

Section 1. All funds of the Branch shall be deposited in such bank and savings institution as the Branch may determine.

Section 2. No money shall be paid out by the Treasurer except on a warrant ordered by the Branch and signed by the President.
